34 Inducted...into Phi Theta Kappa

Phi Theta Kappa opens doors of opportunity that lead to an enriching and well-rounded academic experience that enhances student success. The Honor Society serves students in over 1,275 community colleges around the world, honoring their academic achievements and encouraging continued academic excellence.

It provides members with collaborative learning opportunities as part of The Phi Theta Kappa Experience in an atmosphere that encourages the exchange of intellectual ideas and ideals as well as programs to develop their leadership abilities. Thirty-four new members were inducted into the honors programme on 11th April 2013.
