Ramphal the Employee of the Month

On Monday 31st October 2016 we congratulated Mr. Pramanand Ramphal and Mrs. Violet Freeman as the first two employees to be recognized under the recently introduced Employee of the Month scheme. It was a close race based on the nomination results, but Mr. Ramphal was victorious in being named as the Employee of the Month for the month of November 2016, with Mrs. Freeman being the runner up.

Pramanand is a handyman attached to the Facilities Department of the College. He has supported the mission, vision and values of HLSCC through his dedication and hard work demonstrated by his excellent efforts among his colleagues. As the employee of the month, Pramanand received a designated parking space for the month, reward certificate, reward lapel pin, and a personalized cake.

In a brief interview, Pramanand recalls “I started out as the gardener maintaining the grounds over at the Culinary Centre. After about two or three years later, I moved to the cafeteria where I’ve served in many capacities from the cleaner, maintenance guy, inventory assistant, catering set up and breakdown guy, until its closure back in June of this year. When the cafeteria closed, the College decided to keep me, and I’m now maintaining the grounds again. Now after ten years of working for the College, I am pleased to be honoured for my hard work over the years, although at times, I felt that I was doing the tasks of two, but I never complained and did what I had to do. I’ll be leaving shortly, as I am returning to my homeland in a few weeks, but I would like to take this opportunity to say thank you to the entire College community. It was a pleasure working with everyone.”

We at HLSCC, would like to express our sincere gratitude to Pramanand for all that he has done for the students, faculty and staff over the years. Congratulations again on being November’s Employee of the Month, and good luck in your future endeavours!
